

Absa to hold seminar on savings

FINANCE | Absa will tomorrow hold a round-table discussion on SA's savings culture amid a warning yesterday by Deputy Finance Minister Nhlanhla Nene that SA will not achieve growth targets without growing its savings base. Absa said this month, which marks national savings month, had re-ignited talk about the savings culture in SA — laying bare the grim realities about South Africans in relation to savings and economic growth. Business Day Reporter

